Terms Conditions

These terms and conditions are between Photo Creations ABN 71068928104 and Client on Pages 1 and 2

Service We Provide to You the Client Conditions

The Client agrees to pay a fee for our service. The Client legally authorises Photo Creations to reproduce copy or copies of the Client's media. A change of media type or format is included. The Client supplies the media. All transactions completed are agreed to comply with Australian legislation. The law in NSW is accepted by the Client. The media or materials to be copied and provided by the Client might include some material or media that has Copyright Notices attached.

Copyright and Permissions to Copy Conditions

The Client warrants or guarantees that they have the legal right to request Photo Creations to copy or reproduce or provide copy or copies of the material provided by the Client. It is warranted by the Client, that the Copyright is either owned by the Client, or the Client has legal written permission by the Copyright Owner to perform the copy or copying performed by Photo Creations. The Client agrees to indemnify Photo Creations against any losses, or damage, or expenses that may result, including both directly or indirectly as a result of any Copyright Breach as a result of the Client not having these rights to request Photo Creations to make a copy or copies of the media provided by the Client.

Defamation Conditions

The client warrants that the material provided by the Client, is not in any way defamatory of any person, business or company. The client indemnifies Photo Creations against any loss or damage or expenses that may result whether directly or indirectly as a result of any breach under this warrant in liability for defamation arising out Photo Creations providing services to copy or copies and format changes of any material provided to Photo Creations by the Client.

Liability Conditions

Photo Creations will not be under any liability (including negligence) for any losses or damages, (including consequential) however it was caused, which may arise directly or indirectly from the supply of services, or the failures to supply the services to the Client. No liability includes any media or material provided by the Client to Photo Creations. The Client agrees that media or material provided by the Client, may fail for any reason and any information contained in the media may be lost permanently.

I acknowledge I have read, understood, agree to the Terms Conditions
